

FRAME-UP CHARGE BLOCKS WIFE'S SUIT

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Justice Giegerich today dismissed the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Audrey Hammond Bay, of Baltimore and Garden City, against Lieut. James Holmes Bay, of the United States Army Aviation Corps. The defendant denied the charges made by his wife and also set up a defense of connivance and procurement. Justice Giegerich refused to accept the evidence of a detective named Thurman who was employed by Mrs. Bay.

The testimony showed that Thurman and another detective named Hepburn went to Texas, where Lieut. Bay was in the military service, and after securing up an acquaintance with him introduced him to several women. Then during an excursion to Mineral Wells, Texas, they sought to compromise him. Lieut. Bay, on the other hand, suspected Thurman and Hepburn of being engaged in spreading some sort of German propaganda and communicated his suspicion to his superior officer, who instructed the lieutenant to watch the two men. He said this accounted for his being so much in their company. The officer corroborated the story told by Lieut. Bay.

FERRY TO MAKE STOPS AT EAST POTOMAC PARK

For the accommodation of persons having garden plots in the park or others who may wish to cross the Washington channel from the upper landing near the field house in East Potomac Park, the United States ferry boat Bartholdi will begin today to make three special stops at this point. The stops will be made at 4:20, 5:20, and 6:20 o'clock p. m. The boat is operated by the Office of the Public Buildings and grounds.

CHARGED FOR WRAPPINGS.
JERSEY CITY N. J., Aug. 9.—John McMaster, manager of the Swift & Co. packing plant here, was fined $125 in police court for charging for the wrappings of hams at the same rate as the hams. The case was prosecuted by the department of weights and measure on complaint of James Waldron, a meat dealer, who claimed he had been charged for wrappings at the price of meat.

PEACE TREATY IS O. K.'D BY BELGIUM

BRUSSELS, Aug. 9.—The Chamber of Deputies has unanimously ratified the peace treaty with Germany.
During the discussion of the treaty the foreign minister said:
"The league of nations fails to offer immediate guarantees and compels us to look to our own defense. That is why we are seeking at Paris a revision of the treaties of 1820. I wish to assure our delegates that the whole nation supports them. Revision of the treaties will provide the required guarantees."
The chamber also ratified the annex to the treaty concerning the military convention entered into by France, the United States, Great Britain, and Belgium.

MADRID, Aug. 9.—Parliament approved the proposal that Spain join the league of nations.

How Many of These Questions Can YOU Answer?

HERE are ten important questions bearing on the war with Germany. None are "catch" questions; the answers to all should be readily given by any well-informed person. Yet in ten instances in which this list was submitted, in only one case were as many as eight of the questions answered with any degree of accuracy.

1. Where and when was poisonous gas first used in warfare?
2. What was the importance of the Battle of Jutland?
3. What was "the Picardy disaster?"
4. Who said "We're fighting with our backs to the wall?"
5. Which was the Americans' greatest battle?
6. How many Americans were killed in action?
7. What was the date of the Lusitania sinking?
8. Who were called "The Contemptibles?"
9. What part did Japan play in the war?
10. What was the "Allenby crusade?"
